

The occasion to remember forever...

Our experienced team will accompany you through every step of your wedding journey, from the drawing board to the big day itself. All we want you to do is relax and enjoy hosting your truly enchanting day.

We understand there are many elements to planning the big day and so we want to effortlessly take care of everything that happens here at St Barts.

Food & drink

Our in-house team craft our menus based on the freshest seasonal produce. We like to think of our menus as a style guide to what we can offer - the team will happily sculpt a menu to your mealtime wishes.

From formal four course banquet to informal bowl and standing food, we can tailor a host of catering options to coalesce with your timings and palette. We specialise in traditional plated meals, but happily cater to a modern sharing and feasting options.

The team are more than happy to cater for all dietary requirements, we suggest to couples to select their menu and then all deliveries and allergies are prepared exclusively.

At St Barts we know just how stressful organising a wedding can be and its not just about the Big day itself... Everything from the invite list to cake choices are all part of this exciting journey and we are passionate about working with you to ensure that everything runs like clockwork.

We also like to consider ourselves experts in organising and hosting all manners of celebrations and events, ranging from engagement parties, family suppers to hen and stag parties, to name just a few. So, if you are needing help with organising your hens or stags, why not have a chat with us to see whether we can assist with a bespoke cocktail masterclass or beer tasting session.

Lastly, if you are planning on getting the families together before the Big Day, we'd be happy to assist with arranging a tour and tasting day at our Award-Winning English Winery- Hush Heath Estate. The team would be delighted to show you around our 400-hundred-acre estate, so you and the family could bond whilst taking in the pristine countryside and ancient woodlands which teem with wildlife and not forgetting our
